Supreme Court of the State of New York – County of Kings

Bahram Maskanian

Plaintiff(s),

Index No: 351 / 2021

-against-

August 24, 2021

COMPLAINT

Wells Fargo & Company

Defendant(s).

The compliant of the plaintiff, Bahram Maskanian, respectfully shows and alleges as follows:

1 – The plaintiff herein, Bahram Maskanian, is a resident of the State of New York. Mr. Maskanian resides at 6102 5th Ave. # 205390 - Brooklyn, NY 11220

2 – The defendant herein, Wells Fargo & Company, in banking business for over 120 years, at: 1300 3rd Avenue, New York, NY, 10021. Defendant is engaged in the business of money, banking and finance. Operating over 12,000 ATMs and approximately 4,900 retail banking branches coast to coast. As of August 31, 2021 Wells Fargo & Company net worth is $365.6 Billion Dollars - (WFC) Stock Price of $49,81.

3 – Plaintiff's substantiated claim proves Wells Fargo's relentless efforts in defrauding and robbing their customers. "Dodd-Frank Act of 2010" states that it is unlawful for any provider of consumer financial products and services to engage in any deceptive, fraudulent, or abusive act of business practice. Thou Shalt Not Steal. 18 U.S. Code CHAPTER 31- EMBEZZLEMENT AND THEFT - 18 U.S. Code § 656 - Theft, embezzlement, or misapplication by bank officer, or employee.

4 – On May 5th plaintiff checked his Wells Fargo's VISA account online to see if an unsubscribed news outlet has charged his account. Plaintiff discovers what he thought at first a miscalculation on his 03/29/2021 to 04/27/2021 - VISA statement ending in 3157. Plaintiff calls Wells Fargo's customer service, or bankers on four separate occasions on May 5th and talk with four bankers, none of them would listen to simple logic and math, as plaintiff tried to explain the overcharging. The fourth one got so pissed off at plaintiff for disputing her fictional feud, she hung up on plaintiff. Surprisingly every single one of them kept on repeating the very same imaginary, nonsense, scripted narrative.

5 – Plaintiff began to look for different ways of reporting the grand larceny of overcharging, using Wells Fargo's online messaging center, plus an email he found on their website. No matter what and how the plaintiff illustrated the problem, he continue getting emails back, saying the same, each of them containing different case number. On May 09, 2021, plaintiff received his paper bill in the mail. He did the math correctly, paid his bill in full, minus the fraudulent overcharging $259.90, and mailed a check for $847.80, attached to one page letter, including the calculation below, on May 10, 2021.

Total Credits	$1,076.40
The $259.90 double charge is hidden in the "New Balance"	$1,107.70
New Correct Balance	$847.80 =

6 – Plaintiff received his Wells Fargo VISA in August of 2020, using it once, or twice a month until April 2021, when for the first time he had 7 purchases, plus $259.90 previous balance. Plaintiff notices that Wells Fargo & Company hide the overcharge within the "New Balance". If the customer does not check the math they would probably never know. Plaintiff is almost certain that he is not the only victim of Wells Fargo's nationwide grand larceny operation and there must be many others.

7 – Few days later the 11th banker "Christina S - phone: [REDACTED]-4748 - Ext. 5826463" left plaintiff a voicemail saying that she has received plaintiff's letter, which was attached to his payment. Plaintiff calls and speak with her on May 24, 2021, after another long, frustrating back and forth, Christina was just the same as other bankers, insisting snow is red. Nothing changed.

8 – Out of total desperation plaintiff begin to call different departments of Wells Fargo & Company trying to obtain direct phone numbers and or emails of upper management to contact and state his case. Plaintiff finds few executive's emails: CEO Charles Scharf <charles.scharf@wellsfargo.com> - BoardCommunications@wellsfargo.com - Socialcare@wellsfargo.com - Mark Elliott

<Mark.W.Elliott@wellsfargo.com> - Mary T Mack <mary.mack@wellsfargo.com> and John R Shrewsberry <john.shrewsberry@wellsfargo.com> - On May 31, 2021 plaintiff writes an email about his frustrating and disappointing experience to the CEO and carbon copy the rest of them. The next day he receive an email from 12th banker, containing yet another case number: 06202106013468358.

9 – On Thursday June 03, 2021, plaintiff calls (Exec Office Case Specialist - Enterprise Complaints Management Office) at Wells Fargo & Company to speak with the 12th banker Aaron Ramirez - Phone: 515-461-4135. Aaron Ramirez informs plaintiff that Wells Fargo's CEO office referred plaintiff's case to him. Aaron Ramirez was just as a pickpocket as the rest of them. For an hour, he tries to deceive and distract plaintiff; using the most idiotic excuses plaintiff has ever heard, to legitimize Wells Fargo's blatant robbery attempt as legitimate transaction. Completely disregarding Wells Fargo & Company's own current statement reflecting all transactions, that if he were to subtract Total Credits of $1,076.40, from Total Purchases of $1,924.20, he would get $847.80, which is the correct amount plaintiff owed, and already paid. Yet another frustrating and stressful encounter with Wells Fargo & Company.

10 – The title: “Exec Office Case Specialist - Enterprise Complaints Management Office”, says it all. It is no coincidence, this is done deliberately to impress and intimidate the customer at the same time. So when the customer already feeling important and yet intimidated calls: “Exec Office Case Specialist - Enterprise”; the fancy title begin to do its magic, as soon as the Wells Fargo's purse-snatchers begin to convince the ignorant customer that she, or he is wrong, and the bogus overcharge is legitimate, by making up some convoluted, absurd argument, thus the customer would not dare to question it.

11 – Wells Fargo's behavior and blatant refusal to remove the overcharge made plaintiff certain, that Wells Fargo's staff are involved in a systemic and deliberate accounting fraud perpetrated on their customers. Millions of people who carry previous balance on their credit card statement would never check the math, assuming the bank has a calculator and sense of morality, thus would do their job accurately and honestly. Seems obvious Wells Fargo & Company knowingly and willfully utilizing fraudulent accounting to rob billions of dollars from hard working, innocent folks and families.

12 – As of today: August 31, 2021, Wells Fargo & Company continues to intimidate the plaintiff using outrageous late fees and interest charges, still insisting on their fraudulent overcharging and refuse to correct plaintiff's account, and apologize for the pain and frustration they are causing. - Makes no sense to punish victims of economic and political downfall, for not having the bank's dictated minimum balance in their account, and or mailing payments a couple of days late, and instead of a helping hand, kick them in the teeth and charge them usury interest rate and late fees, takeaway the little money they have left, for not being rich enough, plaintiff wondered.

13 – Plaintiff has saved screenshots, account statements, all email communications to the CEO and board of directors of Wells Fargo & Company, plus the emails he received from Wells Fargo's gang of bandit bankers, all painting a clear picture of what is truly going on. The evidences clearly suggests widespread fraudulent behavior, Wells Fargo & Company swindling their customers knowingly and willingly. Plaintiff has enough evidence to prove it.

14 – Wells Fargo's robbery attempt forcing the plaintiff to call their "Exec Office Case Specialist - Enterprise" bandit bankers and go through so many frustrating and painful quarrels, so many times, while trying to protect his credit, money and defend himself, and to set the record straight, to no avail, did not help plaintiff's vulnerable health condition.

15 – On February 14, 2020, plaintiff was a victim of an accident he did not cause. A heavy object fell from above, on top of his head at work, causing brain injury. Plaintiff had MRI done, he was examined by nine (9) specialist doctors; concluding diagnostics of: Head Injury, Post-Concussion Syndrome and Cognitive Deficits. Currently plaintiff is suffering from awful headaches, visual disturbances, constant irritating hissing noises in his head, loss of memory and income. (Plaintiff's workers compensation case is pending) To keep calm and avoid worsening his symptoms caused by verbal confrontation and stress, plaintiff prefers to communicate in writing, mostly by email. Wells Fargo & Company's nerve-wracking unjust fees, and treatment has caused unwanted stress, worsening his health condition.

16 – As the result of the accident plaintiff has been disabled and unemployed since the time of the accident at the age of 67 in February 14, 2020. As an injured, disabled worker plaintiff is not eligible for any kind of government stimulus program or unemployment insurance. Plaintiff's living expenses, food, cost of his herbal medicine, rent, etc., had left him deep in debt with friends and family.

17 – After many sleepless miserable nights, out of total desperation plaintiff's search in finding a solution leads him to United States Attorney's Office Southern District of New York Civilian Crime

Reports Unit (Criminal Division) One St. Andrew's Plaza New York, NY 10007. Plaintiff calls and an employee of the office directs plaintiff to download the "Civilian Crime Report", fill it out and mail it with all of the evidences in hand to U.S. Attorney's Office. It was mailed on June 21, 2021. A copy along with other related exhibits are attached to this complaint.

18 – Plaintiff herein, respectfully requests public jury trial, to bring his case to the court and the jury for consideration, in order to publicize Wells Fargo & Company's crime and obtain judgment against the defendant, thus compelling Wells Fargo & Company to stop; and notify all other victims of their crime. Defendant should also be compelled to pay ten million, two hundred and fifty nine dollars and ninety cents ($10,000,259.90) to plaintiff in relief for damages, pain and suffering defendant's blatant robbery attempt had caused, in addition to withdrawing all of the damaging falsified reports injuring plaintiff's credit and reputation.

VERIFICATION

BAHRAM MASKANIAN; being duly sworn, deposes and says: I am the plaintiff in the above-entitled action. I have written and read the foregoing and know the contents thereof. The same are true to my knowledge, including all allegations therein stated to be true, based on factual evidences, information, exhibits and as to those matters I believe them to be true.

Subject: Change to your credit card account ending in 3157

Dear Bahram Maskanian:

We are writing to let you know that we lowered the credit limit on your credit card account from $5,000 to $650, and to provide information to help you understand our decision.

What you need to know

While we are unable to share our full decision-making process, our decision to lower your credit limit is based on a combination of factors we've observed over time, including the following:

- * Recent delinquency on Wells Fargo credit card
- Credit accounts in good standing have not been open long enough (we look for a history of how you manage credit)
- No checking or savings accounts with wells fargo (we look at your wells fargo accounts as an additional factor)

What you need to do

Please monitor your account to ensure you stay within the new credit limit.

About our credit decision and your consumer report

Our decision was based in whole or in part on information in a consumer report (often called a credit report) from the consumer reporting agency below. This agency was not involved in our decision and cannot provide you with specific reasons about our decision.

Please see the following page for important information.
